ABOUT CLASSBRAIN

ClassBrain is an educational website that specializes in creating supplementary educational materials for students, teachers and parents. They create worksheets, lesson plans, and even games that help students learn about hundreds of topics. Here are just a few examples:

- Edison's life (Monthly Grab Bag section)
- Alaska's states symbols (State Reports Section)
- How to Tie Your Shoes (1st through 3rd Grade Section)
- Thailand's population (Country Report Section)
- How to say "dog" in French, Italian, Spanish, or German (Games Section)
- What happened on September 11th, 2001 (The Freedom Files)

The Scout Report is one of the Internet's longest-running weekly publications run by the University of Wisconsin. They offer researchers, educators, and anyone else with an interest in high-quality online material, a selection of new and newly discovered online resources. Read what they said about ClassBrain:

"This amazingly impressive site by ClassBrain, Inc. provides valuable educational resources for students, parents, and teachers. The site is equipped with various learning activities and games for students ranging from grade levels Pre-K to 12. In addition, this site contains information on world countries and US states. Both the country and state reports are arranged in alphabetical order and provide data on history, statistics, maps, geographical information, government, economy, and much more. This site is a breath of fresh air for those parents and teachers discouraged by the plethora of untactful Internet sites currently accessible to children. "

Go to www.classbrain.com and take a look through the wonderful resources they offer. Be sure to check out their Parent/Teacher section as well. It's full of helpful information for your every day life.
